MEETING OF WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The Wesleyan Service Guild of Trinity Methodist Church, Appomattox Circuit, held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, June 4, at the home of Mrs. Polly Inge. This meeting marked the fifth anniversary of the organization of the Trinity Guild.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Frances Kern. Cleo Reynolds led the devotional period and then concluded teaching the study book, "An Introduction to the Five Spiritual Classics," the final chapter being "A Testament of Devotion," by Thomas Kelly.

"Our Community and the World" program for the month, brought to our attention how we, as small communities, have obligations to the world as a whole. The leader for this meeting was Alice Martin, who was assisted in presenting the program by Dot Coleman, Betsy Coleman and Miriam Martin.

A business session followed the program, at which time it was announced that our next meeting would be a covered dish supper at the home of Travis Kern on July 2.

The Guild was happy to welcome a new member, Mrs. Lorene Morris.

DEATHS

MR. L. C. McKENZIE

Mr. Lawrence Cavell McKenzie, died Saturday, June 2, in the Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg, following an illness of two months.

Born Nov. 18, 1886, in Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada, he was a son of the late John Ritchie McKenzie and Janet R. Aitken, both of Scotland. Mr. McKenzie came to the United States in 1910, after graduating from Collegiate Institute in Owen Sound. He had been in the automotive business all his life and was a parts accessory representative for the Chevrolet Division of General Motors Inc., for many years. He was parts manager for Moses Motor Co., here for 16 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mildred Schwab McKenzie, of Appomattox; one son, Douglas Stuart McKenzie, of Hammond, Ind.; one sister, Mrs. A. W. L. Gilpin, of Detroit, Mich.; and one brother, W. R. McKenzie, of Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, Canada; and one grandchild.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. McKenzie served as adjutant and commander of Appomattox American Legion Post 104. He also was a deacon of Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services were held from the church Monday at 3 P. M., conducted by the pastor, Dr. W. Twyman Williams, assisted by Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr. Music was provided by Miss Mary Walker Evans, organist. Interment was in Liberty Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Burke Guill, Ivey Holland, C. K. Hunter, Randolph Gilbert, D. E. Caldwell Jr., DeWitt Evans, Frank Woolridge and Lewis McDearmon.

EDWARD ERNEST McCLENNY

A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello There!

At this time of the year I am reminded of the lovely essay written by one of our graduates, Sandra O'Brien, on graduation.

"Today is the happiest day of our life—graduation. It is the day we have worked toward for twelve long years. It has been fun but not always. There have been times when we felt like giving up and quitting, but our ambition to get ahead made us go on. Let's look back over our commencement exercises. We came to school tonight to graduate, but we didn't quite realize what was happening. We assembled in front of the auditorium clad in our caps and gowns. As the beginning strains of our processional march began we slowly realized we were really leaving. The program was one of great inspiration. After we received our diplomas, we left the auditorium and went back to Mrs. Gilbert's room, our sweet English class. We sat down for just a minute in one of the desks, but then we realized we don't belong there anymore. We belong in the wide world. Someone else will walk up those old halls in our place. As we leave the high school, we know so well that this is not the end but a beautiful beginning.

"Goodbye A. H. S. Maybe someday we'll be able to express all that you have meant to us."

Miss Isabelle Henry, valedictorian of the graduating class, has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced today by Mr. H. E. Kerr, principal.

Isabelle will receive an honorary subscription to The Reader's Digest for one year and an engraved certificate from the Editors, "in recognition of past accomplishment and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come." She was selected to receive the award, designed to stimulate scholarship, citizenship, and continued contact with good reading after graduation.

Now, may God bless each and everyone of you, as we leave you for this year. And a gratful thanks for your patience and kindness to me as your A. H. S. school editor.

As we listen to the beautiful Alma Mater being sung, we know another year has been completed here at A. H. S. Many are leaving, but many more are just beginning.

FAREWELL!

Peggy.

(Editor's note: The Times - Virginian thanks Mis Peggy Wotten for having been our official A. H. S. Reporter this school session. She has been faithful, painstaking, and efficient).

FARM BUREAU FAVORS STATE'S RIGHTS BILLS

The importance of states' legislation now pending before the Senate Judiciary Committee cannot be overemphasized in view of recent rullings handed down by the Supreme Court, according to H. Blalock, president of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation (VFB

"Both the farm and urban citizens of Virginia should be much concerned with Senate Bill S.3143, a companion bill of H.R. 7 a bill introduced by Rep. Howard W. Smith (D) of Virginia, in the last year," Blalock said.

"These bills were not intended to nullify or interfere with Federal Laws, but the passage of this states rights legislation is intend to protect, to a great extent the continued operation of state laws, and help preserve our individual freedom."

The president of the state's largest independent farm organization said that the VFBF and the American Farm Bureau Federation are strongly supporting both the H. R. and Senate bills. "We request that all citizens support and urge upon passage of these bills."

"S.1343 would establish the principle that state law in any field will continue to be valid and may be enforced in state courts, except in those instances in which there is a direct conflict between state and federal law, in which event the latter will prevail," Blalock concluded.

News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I liked this one:

When the lovesick young fellow threatened suicide, the object of his affection hurriedly left the room and, a moment later, returned with a photograph of herself, inscribed, "with love, from Janet."

"Promise me," she said gently, "that you will carry this next to your heart always."

"Oh, darling, I will," cried the overjoyed male. "Then, you really do care?"

"Care?" echoed the girl. "Yes, of course! Think of the wonderful publicity when they find my picture on your body!" —Quote.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Webb on Church Street is nearing completion, and it is understood that they will move soon.

Mr. John Hall is building a new home on Lee-Grant Avenue.

Friends are glad to hear that James D. Hall, who is a patient in the Meomrial Hospital, is improving. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Elon Johnson has a lovely rose, called the "Hornet Nest" rose, which looks exactly like a hornet's nest. She was kind enough to give me several roses from this unusual plant: the first I had seen. Lovely pink in color.

Several wgeks ago I had guests for dinner and the table was decorated with lovely red peonies, given me by Mrs. Sam Anderson. Belated "thanks."

Many of us have been admiring the red roses climbing along an extended fence at the J. R. Shuford home.
